WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE IN A CHRISTIAN LAW SCHOOL?

We believe that a legal career is more than a profession. It is a calling to put your education and faith into action for the sake of your clients, society, and the world. Trinity Law School is a California Bar-accredited law school located in Orange County, CA, providing an exceptional legal education in the historic, Judeo-Christian tradition.

Voted One of the Best Law Schools
for the Devout
Since 2015

Our Community

We seek to be a learning community that operates by the ethics and values of the Kingdom of God. The make-up of the community should be a reflection of the breadth and diversity of the family of God. The way we treat people should be consistent with our Lord's morals, justice, compassion, humility, and love.

We are a Christian law school dedicated to academic excellence. Our programs are designed to help you pass the bar so you can emerge from school ready to practice law.

HOW DOES TRINITY LIVE OUT ITS FAITH?

Founded on the Word of God.

It's a living, breathing community full of opportunity, friendship, and discovery bound together through worship of the one, true God.

Trinity International University

At Trinity College, we educate women and men to engage in God's redemptive work in the world by cultivating academic excellence, Christian faithfulness, and lifelong learning.

Trinity Law School is the law school of Trinity International University, which consists of TC, TEDS, and TLS. For over 125 years, the school has faithfully educated men and women of Christ to impact the world for God's glory.

Trinity Evangelical Divinity School

Trinity Evangelical Divinity School exists to serve the church of the living God by equipping servants for the work of the gospel of Christ Jesus worldwide by the power of the Holy Spirit.

This is what the
LORD Almighty said:
*Administer true
justice; show mercy and compassion to one another.*"

—Zechariah 7:9

Trinity is committed to Scripture and helping students live a gospel-centered life.

"To be sure, law cannot redeem souls. But as co-laborers with Christ, who reconciles all things to himself, 'we have a redemptive task wherever our vocation places us in this world.' Our God is Redeemer, and he is redeeming law and politics and dance and architecture and literature and sinners. To the extent that we are used as God's tool and exerting a loving, serving, redeeming influence on the world around us, our law practice can indeed have redeeming value in this world."

"Trinity is equipping law students to serve God and their clients with intelligence and integrity."

Steven A. Meline
Trinity Law School Alumnus

Michael P. Schutt
Adjunct Professor and Author of Redeeming Law: Christian Calling and the Legal Profession

I found God, not only through the values of Trinity Law School,
but also through
the way that law
is being taught.
There is a parallel to Scripture.”

Martin Isreb, JD
Trinity Law School Graduate, 2021

Martin's Four Favorite Features of Trinity Law School:

High Regard for Ethics and Values

Ability to Articulate Truth in the Public Square

Supported During Crucial Moments

Community Service through Clinics

Beyond the practical, since stepping through the door of Trinity Law School, Martin has grown from someone unsure of who God is to a person who has committed his life to Christ.

FLEX TRACK

We're committed to making a legal education accessible.

To further that mission, we offer a special way for students who do not meet our regular admission standards to be considered for admission through our Flex Track.

Flex Track students, who are part-time, must adhere to a predetermined class schedule for their initial two semesters.

After the second semester, those who do not achieve a GPA of 2.67 or higher, score at least 145 on the LSAT during the first Flex semester, and earn at least a C in each course are required to pass the First-Year Law Students' Examination (FYLSX) to continue in the Regular JD program. Alternatively, to continue in the Regular JD program, students not dismissed may continue for an optional third semester of study but must earn a cumulative GPA of 2.67+ or pass the FYLSX.

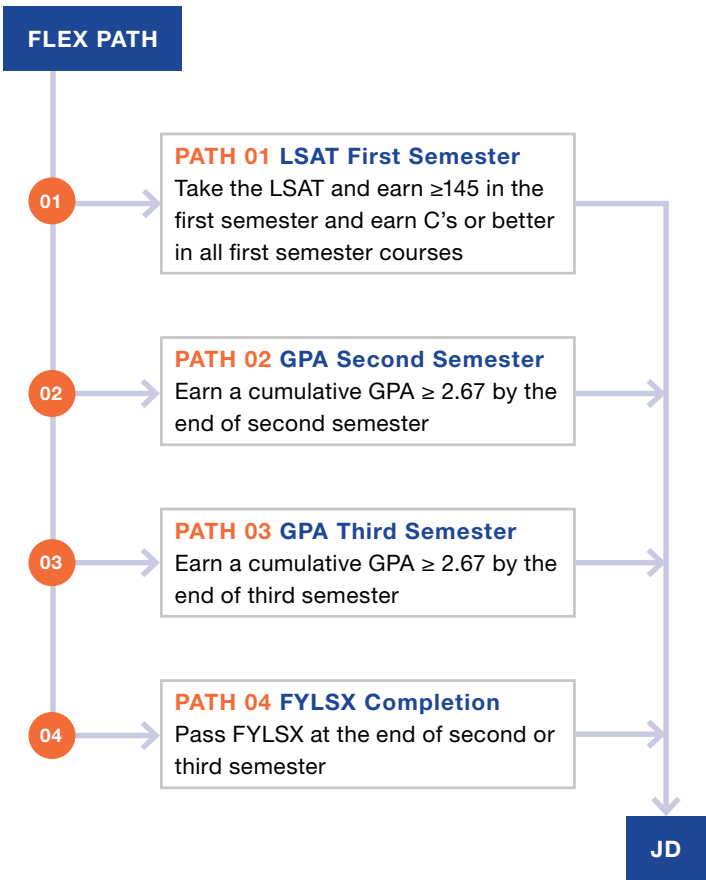

The FYLSX is not required for traditional/regular track law students. For more information, call us at 800-922-4748 or visit tls.edu/flex

DON'T LET THE LSAT HOLD YOU BACK.

Trinity will help you with one free LSAT prep class, or you can be considered for the Flex Track option. Flex Track allows you to start law school without meeting our regular admission requirements.

PATHWAYS FROM FLEX TO JD

Flex Track was a substantial part of my success for passing the bar.”

Samantha Escobar, JD
Trinity Law School Graduate, 2021
First-Time Bar Passer

We asked Samantha: In a practical sense, how did the faculty support you as a Trinity student?

Trinity Law School's biggest strength is its faculty and community. I was well supported by all the professors who provided feedback consistently. They supported me by providing tutors and open office hours to discuss the material while I was in the Flex Track Option.

The weekly exams helped me learn how to write effectively, and they conditioned my study habits and taught me discipline.

WHAT ARE THE APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS?

Requirements

All applicants must satisfy the California State Bar's pre-legal education requirements prior to starting law school. In addition, the Trinity Law School Admissions Committee seeks candidates who demonstrate an ability to succeed in law school and on the bar exam. Several factors are considered as evidence for success. These include undergraduate GPA, LSAT score, ability to communicate with precision, career accomplishments, and letters of recommendation to attest to these criteria. TLS will follow up with contact(s) from the letters of recommendation to verify information. The committee reviews candidates year round on a rolling admissions basis.

When you're ready, take a minute (or twenty) to visit tls.edu/apply to apply. Or contact admissions at 800-922-4748.

OTHER FAQs

Can I transfer in?

If you wish to transfer to Trinity after attending another law school, you must satisfy the admission requirements for new students and provide an official transcript and letter of standing from your current law school. Students who are not in good standing, on probation, or have been academically dismissed are considered on a case-by-case basis.

What if I don't have an LSAT?

Trinity will help you with one free LSAT prep class, or you can be considered for the Flex Track option for the first year.
See www.tls.edu/flex

Can I go to Trinity Law School if I'm not a Christian?

Yes, people of any faith or no faith are welcome to attend, and many do. Trinity is a place where rigorous debate and discussion are encouraged. However, all professors and staff are Christian and teach from a biblical understanding of the law.

What if I don't have a bachelor's degree?

As part of satisfying the California State Bar's pre-legal education requirements, you must meet one of the following:

1. Hold an AA/AS or higher degree
2. Complete 60 transferable college units
3. Take a specific series of College Level Examination Program (CLEP) exams

What if I am using LSAC's Credential Assembly Service (CAS)? Can I still apply?

Our admissions team will request your CAS report upon application. If you are not using CAS, we will order transcripts on your behalf with your signed release after application.

For any other questions or to get started on your journey, contact the admissions office at 800-922-4748.

CENTER FOR HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRAMS

The Center for Human Rights provides a unique opportunity for Trinity Law students seeking real exposure in international law.

Winter Program

Cambodia

The Winter Human Rights Program is offered in Phnom Penh and Siem Reap, Cambodia. Through this course, students learn about the fight against human trafficking through economic development during a time of government evolution. Additionally, students learn about the Cambodian genocide through visits to the S-21 Prison, the Killing Fields, and the Cambodian Tribunal where Khmer Rouge perpetrators were prosecuted. Students also have the opportunity to return in the summer to intern with an NGO.

Summer Program

Europe

Offered each July in The Hague, Netherlands, and Strasbourg, France, the Summer Human Rights Institute is an advanced course in international and comparative human rights law taught by leading academics and practitioners from around the world. Students learn about international and regional human rights systems and examine the most important human rights issues from a Christian perspective. Students also visit human rights courts and other sites that contribute to the modern view of human rights law.

Justice

An International Journal of Faith, Law, and Human Rights

Justice seeks to provide scholarly research and advocacy within the biblical tradition on human rights and related issues of law, theory, policy, and practice. The journal is committed to providing a forum for scholarship that explores and defends the Christian basis for human rights and justice and seeks to promote knowledge and discussion of human rights issues. Justice publishes critical scholarship on human rights—and on related areas of law, politics, ethics, philosophy, and anthropology more generally—considered at the international, regional, and domestic levels.

HOW CAN I PARTICIPATE IN LEGAL CLINICS?

Helping the least, the last, and the lost.

You have the opportunity to participate in five clinics:

Trinity Law Clinic
at Orange County Rescue Mission

Trinity Mobile Clinic

Religious Liberty Clinic

Mediation Clinic

Immigration Clinic

Trinity Law School is a wonderful example of an educational institution that is not just handing out degrees but calling their students to provide a helping hand to the least, the last, and the lost of our community.”

Jim Palmer
Former President of Orange County Rescue Mission

Religious Liberty Clinic with

Pacific Justice Institute

Our mission is to defend—without charge—the religious freedoms, parental rights, and other civil liberties of people who cannot defend themselves.

Professor Fired for His Faith

Pacific Justice Institute (PJI) secured a legal victory for Eric Thompson, a sociology professor at Moreno Valley College, who was fired for his discussions of “dangerous” conservative worldviews in his college classroom. PJI represented the professor in depositions, administrative hearings, and a multi-day arbitration conducted like a trial. The arbitrator, who found many of the claims against the tenured professor were unfounded, ruled in Thompson’s favor.

Corona Street Case

One of the most common categories of cases PJI handles involves street preachers who are being harassed by local governments, sometimes even being arrested, notwithstanding First Amendment speech rights. In this case, PJI is representing a man who was given a ticket for open-air preaching.

Trinity Law Clinic at

Orange County Rescue Mission

The Clinic’s mission at Orange County Rescue Mission (OCRM) is to serve the legal needs of the residents at the Village of Hope and the homeless population of the greater Orange County area.

Serving the Homeless

The Clinic serves the legal needs of the homeless population of the greater Orange County area through its mobile legal clinic. The Trinity Mobile Legal Clinic (see left) has a unique feature in that it is able to go directly to the marginalized of Orange County. Weekly, this Clinic frequents a parking lot facility in the Civic Center Plaza in Santa Ana, CA, where it administers legal aid/advice to those in need.

WHAT INTERNSHIPS ARE AVAILABLE THROUGH TRINITY?

Trinity JD Alumni, 2021

"Through the tasks I have completed at Saunders Law Group, I have acquired many skills that are crucial in the law field. After completing this internship, I feel confident to progress my studies and experience in law."

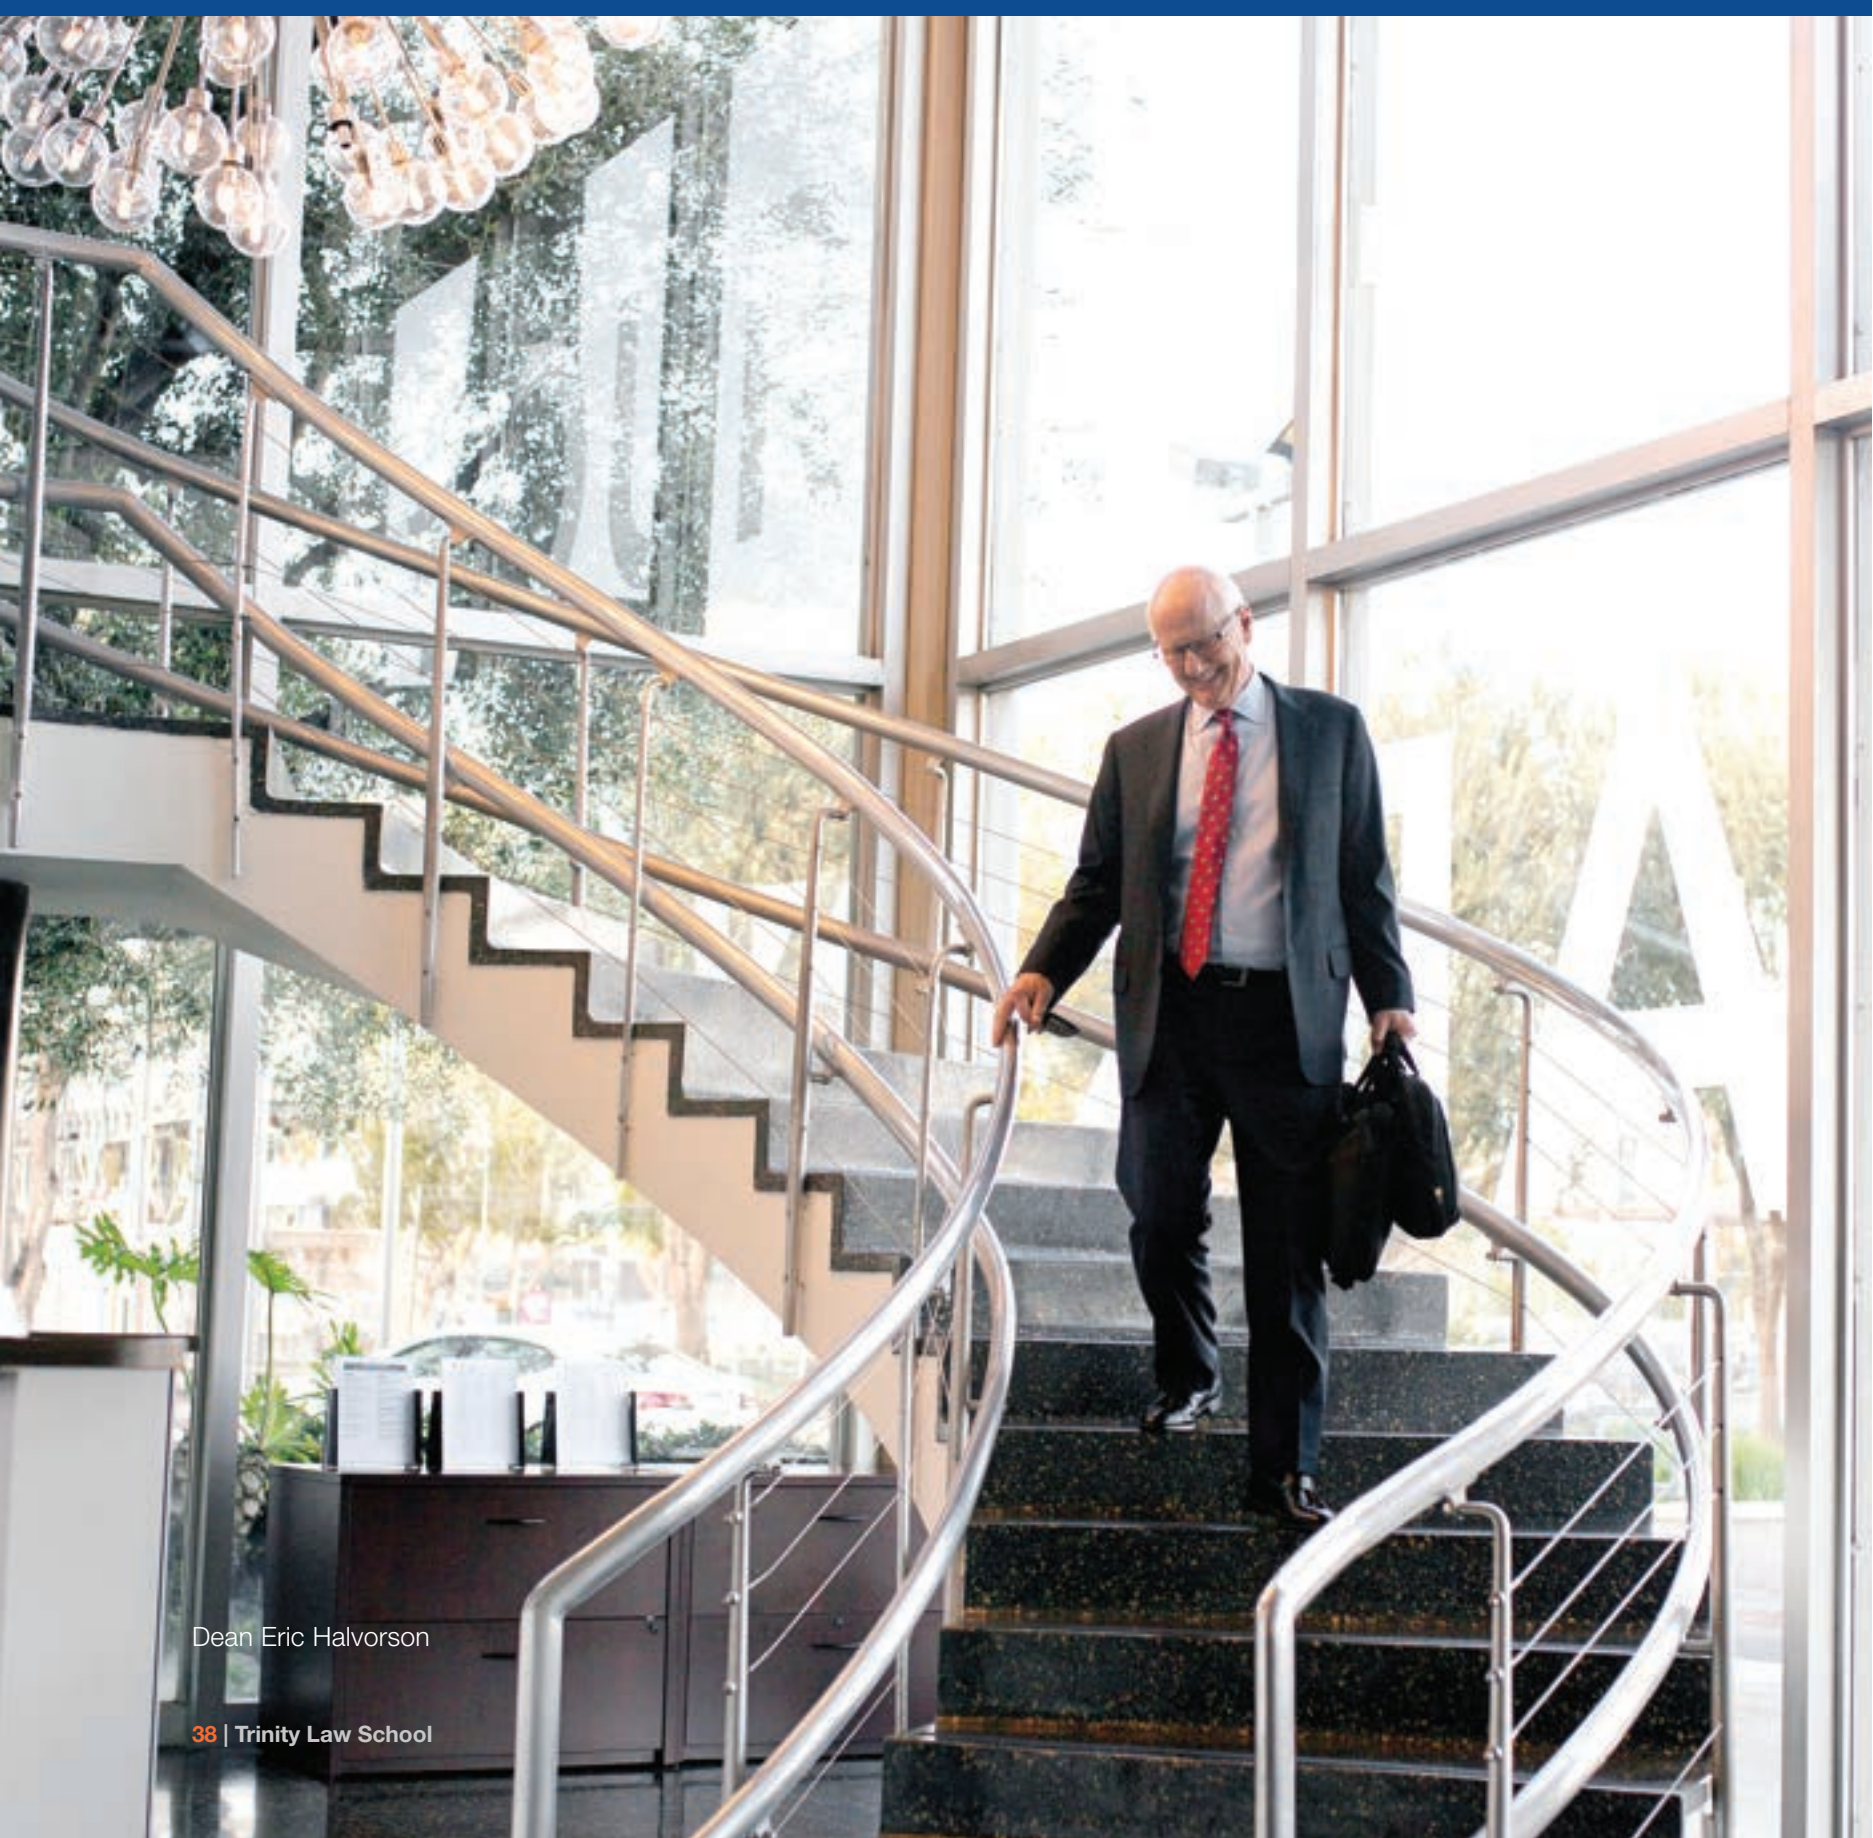

03 San Bernardino District Attorney

Zach Myers
Trinity JD Alumni, 2021

"My time at San Bernardino District Attorney's office allowed me to form lasting relationships with law enforcement and District Attorney personnel, as well as members of the defense bar. I learned that relationships are key to efficiently and properly doing this job. In addition, I was able to sharpen not only my court room skills but also my negotiation and discretionary skills. I couldn't have asked for a better experience."

WHAT ARE TRINITY'S ACCREDITATIONS?

Accreditation

Trinity Law School is accredited by the Committee of Bar Examiners of The State Bar of California. Trinity Law School is a school of Trinity International University, which is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools. Trinity Law School's degree-granting authority is in connection with its students qualifying to take the California Bar Examination, and obtaining admission to the practice of law in California is based on accreditation by the Committee of Bar Examiners of The State Bar of California.

Sitting for the Bar

Except as provided in rule 4.30 of the Admissions Rules (legal education in a foreign state or country), completion of a professional law degree program at this law school other than for the Juris Doctor degree does not qualify a student to take the California Bar Examination or satisfy the requirements for admission to practice law in California. It may not qualify a student to take the bar examination or to satisfy requirements for admission to the practice of law in any other jurisdiction. A student intending to seek admission to practice law should contact the admitting authority in the jurisdictions where the student intends to qualify to sit for the bar examination or to be admitted to practice for information regarding their legal education requirements.

WHERE CAN I PRACTICE LAW?

Practicing Law Outside California

Applicants intending to practice law in states other than California are encouraged to investigate the educational requirements, as well as the rules and regulations, governing admission to practice in those jurisdictions. Study at, or graduation from, this law school may not qualify a student to take the bar examination or be admitted to practice law in jurisdictions other than California. A student who intends to seek admission to practice law outside of California should contact the admitting authority in that jurisdiction for information regarding its education and admission requirements.

Practicing Law Inside California

Accredited by the Committee of Bar Examiners of The State Bar of California, the law program fulfills the requirements pertaining to admission to the practice of law in the state of California. Graduates are qualified to take the California Bar Examination.

Any law school could have prepared me to be a lawyer, but only Trinity could have prepared me to be an advocate with a moral center and a heart."

WHAT ELSE DO I NEED TO KNOW?

Out-of-State Students

If you are coming to Trinity Law School from another state, you should secure suitable housing and transportation to ensure that these issues do not become an impediment to academic success. Trinity does not provide on-campus housing. However, there are several apartment complexes located near campus offering a range of rental rates, leasing, and amenities.

Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities requiring special arrangements will be accommodated upon petition, with supporting documentation of the disability and upon approval of the registrar. Special accommodations will be carefully tailored to meet your documented need(s) in accordance with the Trinity Law School disability policy.

Academic Catalog

Academic policies and standards, in addition to those in this viewbook, are contained in the catalog, which is issued to each student at enrollment. In case of any conflict, the standards contained in the catalog are controlling. Students are responsible for knowing and complying with the policies and standards for the law school as well as the California State Bar's rules regulating admission to practice law in California. The academic catalog can be found at tls.edu/catalog.
