A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to Trinity's 2025 Commencement. On behalf of the Board of Regents, the faculty, and the staff of Trinity International University, I want to express our sincere congratulations to each one of this year's graduates. Your commitment, hard work, and persistent dedication has led you to this point, where today you will receive the degree you have earned here at Trinity.

From the day you first started your journey at Trinity there have been times when the challenges may have seemed a bit overwhelming, and you wondered if this day would come. Yet, by the grace of God, with your determination and sacrifice, along with the encouragement and prayers of family, friends, and faculty members, you have completed the journey. Congratulations!

For so many of you, the sacrifice that allowed you to study at Trinity was shared by those closest to you. Your family and close friends were there for you, praying for you, and giving up time with you so you could study. In numerous ways each one helped make your journey possible. To each family member and friend, please accept my heartfelt appreciation for everything you did to make your graduate's dream a reality.

I also want to express my deep and personal thanks to the exceptional faculty and staff here at Trinity. You have made multiple investments in the lives of our graduates. I deeply appreciate your heart for Trinity's mission and for your commitment to prepare our students to make a significant impact for Jesus with their lives as they faithfully serve Him in all the places He calls them in the years ahead. You not only shared information with our students, but you also shared yourselves with them. Thank you!

Trinity graduates, today you will walk across the stage to receive your diploma and embark on the next leg of the journey of faith and service the Lord has for you. I pray you will know the clear direction from our Heavenly Father, the encouragement from our Lord Jesus, and the empowerment and protection of the Holy Spirit. In the days ahead, keep your focus on Jesus. Walk closely with Him, serve Him faithfully, and steward well the gift that has been entrusted to you through your education at Trinity.

As you depart Commencement today, be assured of our prayers for you. We ask that you also remember to pray for us as we continue to invest in the lives of men and women to prepare them well to be involved in God's redemptive work in the world.

To him who is able to keep you from stumbling and to present you before his glorious presence without fault and with great joy— to the only God our Savior be glory, majesty, power and authority, through Jesus Christ our Lord, before all ages, now and forevermore! Amen.
(Jude 24-25)

Serving our Savior Together,

Kevin Kompelien
President, Trinity International University

He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him. And he is before all things, and in him, all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church.

He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in everything he might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness of God was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross.

Colossians 1:13–20

ABOUT TRINITY LAW SCHOOL

OUR MISSION

Preparing students to flourish as attorneys dedicated to advocating for justice, serving the church, and pursuing the truth throughout the world for Christ

UNIVERSITY SCRIPTURE VERSE

"On the contrary, we speak as men approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel. We are not trying to please men but God, who tests our hearts." —I Thessalonians 2:4

HISTORY

In 1980, a trio of Christian leaders—Dr. John Warwick Montgomery, Dr. Harold Lindsell, and Dr. Walter Martin had a vision for an institution called the Simon Greenleaf School of Law. Their goal was the academic integration of law, human rights, and defense of the Christian faith. Eventually, this school was renamed Simon Greenleaf University to reflect broader educational goals.

In 1997, Simon Greenleaf University joined Trinity International University and was renamed Trinity Law School. Trinity International University is the educational ministry of the Evangelical Free Church of America and includes both TLS and Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. Trinity's broadly evangelical ethos includes many of the same emphases that accompanied the law school's original founding in 1980, including the integration of the Christian faith and other disciplines such as law and the humanities.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Trinity Law School Alumni Association offers opportunities for professional development, networking, and fellowship to all graduates at no cost. Students automatically become members of the Alumni Association upon graduation. Visit tls.edu/alumni to connect!

RECEPTION

All are invited to celebrate the Class of 2025 at a lunch reception hosted by Trinity faculty and Staff. The reception will be held in the Commons and on the adjoining patio immediately following the ceremony.

The Speaker
ADAM MACLEOD

Adam J. MacLeod is Professor of Law and Engelhardt Research Fellow at St. Mary's University. He is a Senior Research Fellow of the Center for Religion, Culture and Democracy and he lectures in the James Madison Program's summer seminar on the Moral Foundations of Law at Princeton University. He has been a fellow at Princeton University and George Mason University, lecturer in the Alabama Judicial College, special Deputy Attorney General of Alabama, and an advisor to active duty and auxiliary commands in the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary. Before his academic career, he practiced law in Boston and served as law clerk to Chief Justice Christopher Armstrong and Justice Benjamin Kaplan of the Massachusetts Appeals Court and then-Chief Judge Lewis T. Babcock of the United States District Court for the District of Colorado.

Professor MacLeod is the author of four books, dozens of book chapters and scholarly articles, and more than one hundred essays and book reviews. His published writings include Property and Practical Reason (Cambridge University Press 2015), peer-reviewed articles in journals such as the Modern Law Review and Journal of Law & Religion, and law review articles in journals such as the Notre Dame Law Review and Harvard Journal of Law & Public Policy. He received his B.A. summa cum laude from Gordon College and his J.D. magna cum laude from the University of Notre Dame.

A Message From the ALUMNI OFFICE

Dear Graduates,

“Being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.” — Philippians 1:6

On behalf of the faculty and staff at Trinity Law School and Trinity International University, it is my great joy to congratulate you on reaching this significant milestone. Your perseverance, faith, and dedication through your studies have not only led you to the completion of your degree but have also shaped you for a lifetime of faithful service and witness.

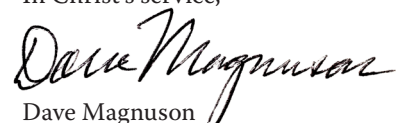

As you step into this next season, we encourage you to remain rooted in the mission and community of TLS. You are now part of a community of more than 28,000 alumni who serve Christ in diverse ministries and vocations around the world. Wherever God leads you, may you carry the light of the gospel boldly and with humility. You have been entrusted with much—go forth in the confidence that Christ is with you, and that, by His grace, your formation here at TLS will continue to bear fruit in the years ahead.

We remain committed to serving and supporting you. We are here to help you stay connected to the TLS community, share your story, and encourage one another in the calling we all share. Please do not hesitate to reach out—we’d love to hear from you and walk with you in this next chapter.

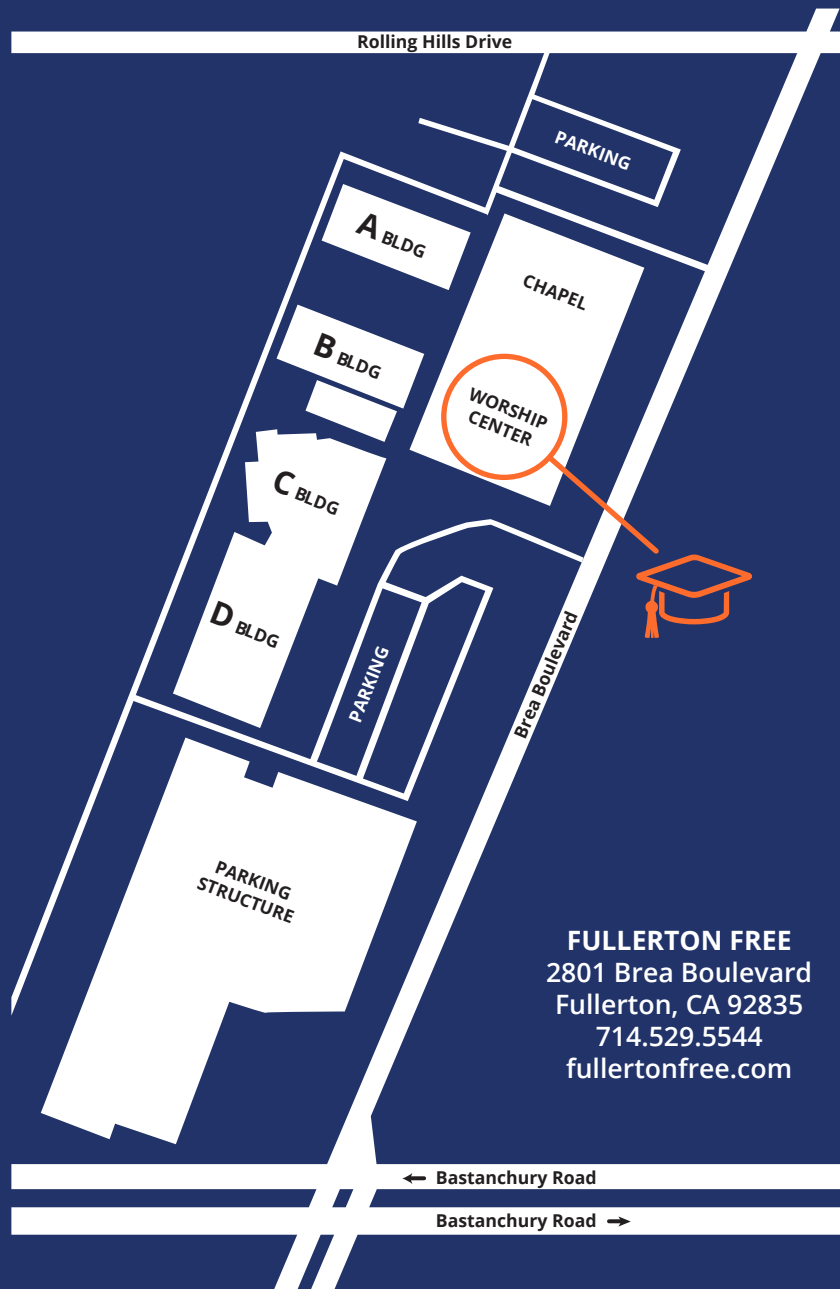

Congratulations, and may God bless and guide your every step.

In Christ’s service,

Dave Magnuson
